General Provision

Article 1. Status of the Faculty and Scope of Regulation

1. The Faculty of Health Sciences (hereinafter referred to as the “Faculty”) of the Eastern European University LLC (hereinafter referred to as the “University”) is the main educational, scientific and administrative unit of the University, which, within the framework of academic freedom and institutional autonomy, ensures the training of students in one or more specialties and the granting of appropriate qualifications to them.
2. The present provision defines the status of the faculty, goals, objectives and areas of competence, the structure of the faculty, the rules of operation of the structural units and the authorities.
3. The official name of the Faculty in the Georgian language is „შპს აღმოსავლეთი ევროპის უნივერსიტეტის ბიზნესისა და ინჟინერიის ფაკულტეტი“ and in English “Faculty of Business and Engineering of East European University LLC” ;
4. The Faculty shall have its own seal, official letterhead, contact email address, and a dedicated section within the University’s official website. The Dean shall sign the letterhead in accordance with the procedure prescribed by the legislation of Georgia, the internal regulations of the University, and this Statute.
5. The Faculty shall, in accordance with the established procedures, utilise the buildings and other property of the University as necessary for the fulfilment of the objectives defined under this Statute.
6. The Faculty shall be accountable to the Rector of the University.
7. Decisions regarding the establishment, reorganisation, or dissolution of the Faculty shall be adopted by the Representative Council of the University, upon the submission of the Rector.
8. The Faculty shall be guided in its activities by the legislation of Georgia, the Statute of the University, this Statute, and other legal acts of the University.

Article 2. Goals, tasks and functions of the faculty

1. The objectives of the Faculty shall be to:

- a. ensure the provision of education that meets modern academic standards and remains accessible, thereby enabling students to acquire profound knowledge in their chosen field of study;
- b. prepare highly qualified and competitive specialists for the labour market at the levels of bachelor’s, master’s, and doctoral studies

2. Powers, Objectives and Functions of the Faculty

- a. creating a student-oriented academic environment and providing appropriate conditions for learning and independent research;
- b. continuously improving the quality and conditions of teaching and learning;
- c. implementing scientific and research projects and promoting the participation of students and academic staff of the Faculty in educational and research initiatives, as well as integrating research outcomes into the teaching process;

- d. supporting the professional development of students and academic staff;
- e. ensuring the protection of the principles of academic freedom and integrity;
- f. facilitating the mobility of students and academic staff of the Faculty;
- g. promoting the development of civil society and universal democratic values
- h. ensuring the engagement of students and academic staff in the governance of the Faculty;
- i. participating in the development and implementation of higher education academic programmes, involving relevant stakeholders in the process, and ensuring the continuous improvement of such programmes;
- j. carrying out other tasks and functions arising from the objectives of the University and the Faculty.

Chapter II

Faculty Structure and Management

Article 3. Faculty Structure

1. Faculty governing body/entity
 - a. Faculty Council;
 - b. Dean of the Faculty.
2. The Faculty shall establish a Dissertations Council and Academic Programmes Committees. For the purpose of conducting scientific research, teaching-research and/or research units (centre/institute) may also be included as structural subdivisions within the Faculty. Decisions regarding the establishment of teaching and research units within the Faculty, as well as the approval of their statutes, shall be made by the Faculty Council. The structure and operational procedures of teaching and research units incorporated into the Faculty shall be determined by the statutes of the respective units.
3. For the effective administration of the educational process, the Faculty shall include: the Deputy Dean(s), coordinators, and specialists (hereinafter referred to as the Faculty Administration).
4. The Faculty Administration shall ensure the organisation and management of the educational process, the administration of academic programmes (bachelor's, master's, or doctoral), student services, the organisation of scientific research in the respective fields, as well as the resolution of other organisational matters within the Faculty.
5. The staff of the Faculty Administration shall be appointed and dismissed by the Rector of the University upon the recommendation of the Dean. Their functions and responsibilities shall be defined by job descriptions and the employment contracts concluded with them.
6. The Faculty shall be entitled, for the effective performance of its activities, to engage, on the basis of a contract, such individual(s) as may be required and possess the relevant expertise.

Article 4. Faculty Council and its formation

1. The Faculty Council is a representative body of the Faculty, the rules of formation of which are determined by this Regulation.

2. The Faculty Council shall consist of seven members. The Faculty Council shall comprise the Dean of the Faculty, four elected representatives of the Faculty's academic staff, and two student representatives. Except for the Dean, no member of the Faculty Council may simultaneously hold membership in both the Faculty Council and the Representative Council of the University.
3. A candidate for membership of the Faculty Council may be a Faculty Leading Professor, Professor, Associate Professor, Assistant Professor and Assistant Professor.
4. The Chair of the Faculty Council is the Dean or, on his / her recommendation, one of the members of the Faculty Council, a representative of the academic staff.
5. The election of the members of the Faculty Council is appointed on the basis of a legal act of the Rector and for the purpose of public disclosure of information, it is published in a place available and visible to all, one week before the elections.
6. The Rector of the University shall establish the University Election Commission and appoint the Chairman and Secretary of the Commission to conduct the elections of the academic staff and student representatives to the Faculty Council.
7. The University Election Commission is authorized to make all decisions regarding the organizational and procedural issues of the elections. It is possible to refuse to register a person by a written reasoned decision of the Faculty Election Commission
8. Academic staff representatives on the Faculty Council are elected by open ballot at the General Meeting of Academic Staff. Voting results are summarized in the appropriate protocol.
9. Candidates are nominated at the General Meeting of Academic Staff. The meeting is authorized if it is attended by more than half of the academic staff of the faculty. Academic staff members can nominate their own, as well other candidates. Each candidate is voted on individually. A candidate (candidates) with a better result becomes a member of the Faculty Council. In case of equal votes, repeated voting shall be held at the same meeting.
10. The term of office of the academic staff elected as a member of the Faculty Council shall be determined in accordance with the term established for the academic position, but not more than 4 years. In case of expiration of the term established for the academic position or early resignation (in case of termination of the Dean's authority in the case of the Dean) the person is automatically terminated as a member of the Faculty Council.
11. Due to the early termination of the term of a member of the Faculty Council, the candidate who has received the largest number of votes in the Faculty Council elections after the member who terminated his authorities preterm, shall become the member of Faculty Council for the remaining term. In the absence of such, re-elections shall be held to fill the vacancy of the Faculty Council in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Article.
12. A student wishing to become a member of the Faculty Council shall apply to the Election Commission with a reasoned application within the time limit specified by the order of the Rector to register as a candidate for membership in its Council. Upon completion of registration, the University Election Commission compiles a unified list of student candidates and sends it to the self-government
13. Student members on the Faculty Council are elected from the list of candidates by the Student SelfGovernment on the basis of free and equal elections for a term of 2 years, by secret ballot.

Selfgovernment is eligible if it is attended by more than half of the student self-governmentmembers.

14. The grounds for terminating a member's authority are:
 - a. personal statement;
 - b. Leave / dismiss (administrative/Academic staff in case of members);
 - c. structural reorganization, which led to the units of the cancellation/change, which represents the members of the council;
 - d. termination of labour relations with the University;
 - e. suspension or termination of student status (in case of student member);
 - f. death or recognition by the court as deceased or as missing person;
 - g. Recognition by the Court as recipient of the support;
 - h. missing of the council meetings without good reason, which exceeds 50 % of the sessions held during the school year;
 - i. expiration of the term of office.
15. Except in the case provided for in subparagraph (i) of paragraph 14 of Article 4, the termination of a member's powers on the Faculty Council shall be effected by an order of the Rector of the University
16. Voting for student candidates is carried out by proper marking on the ballot paper and placing it in the ballot box. The Election Commission is responsible for printing the ballot paper.
17. In case of conducting elections in a different format (via electronic platform), the rules and procedure for conducting elections shall be as defined in paragraph 4.25 of this Regulation.
18. The ballot paper is invalid if:
 - a. the signature of the member of the commission signing the ballot paper is absent;
 - b. none of the candidates is marked;
 - c. more than two candidates from each faculty are marked;
 - d. it is impossible to clear up which candidate the elector voted for.
19. The voting results of the Student Members' Elections on the Faculty Council are summarized in the appropriate protocol.
20. If student candidates running for election receive an equal number of votes, a re- election shall be held. Repeat elections shall be held between candidates with equal results in accordance with the procedures established by this Regulation.
21. The Chairperson of the Election Commission shall submit the academic staff and student representatives elected as members of the Faculty Council to the Rector of the University for approval within 2 working days after the elections at the Faculty, together with the relevant protocols.
22. Within 24 hours after the announcement of the election results, a candidate, a member of the University Election Commission or a voter has the right to file a complaint with the University Representative Council regarding the violation of the rule set forth in this Regulation. Complaints will not be accepted after this deadline. The decision to annul an election shall be made by the Council of Representatives if it considers that the irregularities found have had a material impact on the outcome of the election.
23. A student who is a member of the Faculty Council automatically loses the right to be a member of the Faculty Council in case of suspension / termination of student status, as well as transfer to another faculty through mobility. A new member is elected in accordance with the rules established by this Regulation.
24. A member of student self-government may not run in the election as a candidate for the Faculty Council membership.

25. Elections of Faculty members may, in exceptional cases, be conducted using an electronic platform. Visual and audio identification of voters should be provided in case of electing a member of the Faculty Council electronically. In case of electing a student member of the Faculty Council electronically, voting will take place in the form of an anonymous electronic poll.
